Republic of the Philippines HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Quezon City, Metro Manila

THIRTEENTH CONGRESS First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL No.  $\underline{-1023}$

Introduced by GABRIELA Women's Party List Representative Liza Largoza-Maza

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Aside from home, the school is still the best place where young people can know, learn and begin to protect and promote their rights and rights of others.

Data from national and international women's organizations as well as the Department of Social Welfare and Development, Philippine National Police and other agencies indicate that children are the usual rape victims and many of these victims are schoolchildren.

The school should therefore provide the venue where young people can start the systematic, formal and critical education on women's and girls' rights, welfare, development and gender equality.

All levels of public and private education including technical and vocations schools should integrate in their curriculum women's and girls' rights and welfare, gender fairness and equality, Republic Act No. 7877 or the "Anti-Sexual Harassment Act of 1995" and Republic Act No. 9208 or the "Anti-Trafficking in Persons Act of 2003."

The approval of this bill is earnestly and urgently sought.
